Justice Afari Yankson

IN 1966, THE UNITED NATION'S INTERNATIO NAL COVENANT ON ECONOMIC, SOCIAL AND CULTURAL RIGHTS DECLARED that: Educ ation is the primary vehicle by which economical ly and socially marginaliz ed adults and children can lift themselves out of poverty and obtain the means to participat e fully in their communitie s. *****

That still rings so true, and yet, barriers remain. Even in developed nations especially Ghana, a good education can be hard to find. But there's also encouragin g news on the horizon, and its name is TECHNOLOGY ,

WHAT A WOMAN WANTS

Some guys don't know how much those smallthings can make a girl happy. Many of the fellow guys out there think that buying expensive things, taking a girl to expensive hotels, buying her posh cars... are the ones that count a lot. But that is totally wrong. Smalldeeds mean a lot and they are memorable. If you don't have a big wallet, don't stress a lot. Don't borrow a loan from a ...
